

Fish Story...

From the modest beginnings of Montondo's Fish & Oyster Market on Main Street in Lockport to our present modern retail facility on East Avenue and our wholesale facility on Ann Street, we have strived to make our customers the number one priority!

~

From succulent shrimp, luscious lobster, fresh fish of every variety to our complete line of foodservice products, both our retail and wholesale customers come out the winner every time.

~

Our fully trained staff is always available and eager to answer any questions and offer the personalized service that has become the foundation of our service-oriented business.

~

Whether you are planning an intimate dinner at home or are in the market for a full-service food distributor that will satisfactorily fill your needs, call us at 434-2818 today!
